

Skowhegan History House

History House Association, Inc.

Heirloom Gardens

Black-Eyed Susan Daisy

RUDBECKIA HIRTA

This bright common perennial is also known as a Black-Eyed Susan Daisy, yellow Daisy or a Gloriosa Daisy. First introduced in 1714, its earliest American citation was Bartram, Philadelphia, 1783.