

Skowhegan History House

History House Association, Inc.

History House Exhibits

Oil Paintings on Panels

This collection includes oil paintings of notable local residents, Bryce and Betsy McClellan. These portraits were painted on wooden panels, ca. 1800. Mr. McClellan was the first attorney (1790) to practice in what was the town of Canaan, now Skowhegan. He was also an accomplished business man in the state.

Artist- Jeremiah-Pearson Hardy

