

Skowhegan History House

History House Association, Inc.

Heirloom Gardens

Orange-Gold Daylily

HEMEROCALLIS DUMORTIERI (Liliaceae)

The Orange-Gold Daylily was quite a common perennial in Victorian gardens. It was first introduced in 1570 with its earliest American citation Prince, NY 1857.

This photo shows an attractive mix of the Orange-Gold Daylily with the contrasting colors of Delphinium, old-fashioned Phlox, and Hollyhock.